Terms and Conditions:

Manuscript must be received at least two weeks before delivery deadline. Any delays to receipt of the manuscript will delay the delivery deadline.

Manuscripts may be provided in raw, unedited format, with the understanding that edits will not result in major changes to the plot/characters as included in the final blurb. If, after delivery of the blurb, the manuscript changes, Language Alchemist is not responsible for any edits required to the blurb and a separate agreement will need to be entered into.

Blurbs are approximately 250 words, and subject to two rounds of revision based on author feedback provided within a week of delivery.

Booking of the job is guaranteed only upon receipt of proof of payment, and packages are valid for three years or longer if discussed in advance.

I only write blurbs for the following genres:

- Fantasy

- Sci-fi Fantasy (excluding dystopian/horror/apocalyptic/post-apocalyptic subgenres)
  - Young Adult (excluding the sub-genres already listed above)
- Exceptions may be made at my discretion. If you have a book outside of these genres or in the excluded genres, and would like a blurb, send me the first 3-4 chapters for consideration.

Blurbs remain copyrighted to me and may not be used by the client for any reason until such time as payment is received in full.
